Tranmere live to fight again

Tranmere Rovers 1, Exeter 0

by GRAHAM FISHER

A MAGNIFICENT winner just 13 minutes from time last night took jubilant Tranmere clear of today's fourth division relegation battle.

Roared on by 7,000 fans — four times the normal crowd — Rovers breathed a sigh of relief when full back Gary Williams headed home Ian Muir's cross.

It leaves Lincoln, Torquay and Burnley fighting to avoid making room for Scarborough, while Tranmere's new manager, Johnny King, can begin his preparations for a new season in the TODAY League.
