Conference Announcement and Call for Papers

The 14th Annual GEP Postgraduate Conference 2015

University of Nottingham, United Kingdom

23rd and 24th April 2015

Objectives

The 14th GEP Postgraduate Conference will take place on 23rd and 24th April 2015 at the University of Nottingham. The Conference provides a forum for the dissemination of student research relating to issues of Globalisation and Economic Policy from both theoretical and empirical perspectives. These areas include Foreign Direct Investment, Trade, Productivity, Economics of the MNEs, Migration and Labour Market Adjustment.

The objective of the Conference is to bring together a number of PhD students to discuss their own research ideas with established researchers in a relaxed atmosphere. The Conference is open to graduate students engaged in the preparation of a doctoral dissertation. Speakers will be selected on the basis of submitted papers or an extended abstract. (Preference will, however, be given to papers.)

Submission

Applicants must submit their CV, a letter of support from their PhD supervisor (sent separately by email) and the paper to be presented. If a full paper is not yet available, please include a detailed abstract, providing clearly the motivation for the work, the relationship to the literature, the method used and the expected results. Those who are invited to present a paper are expected to deliver a complete paper before the Conference and in time for distribution among the participants.

Applications must be sent by e-mail to:

Dr Roberto Bonfatti roberto.bonfatti@nottingham.ac.uk

Deadline for submission: 15 January 2015

Keynote speaker: Dr Ben Zissimos (University of Exeter)
