

University of Nottingham

UK | CHINA | MALAYSIA

Medieval postgraduate research seminars

Thursday 20 October, 4-5pm, Humanities A3

Tom Fairfax: Revenge Tale or Royal Mission? Exploring Sveinn Ásleifarson's Scottish travels in Orkneyinga saga

Jaz Higgs: Inscribed swords between the 5th and 7th centuries in Britain

Thursday 24 November, 4-5pm, Humanities A3

Ed van der Molen: Narrative, Rhetoric and Agency in Late Medieval Canonisation Depositions

Ellie Cox: Apocalyptic Thought in Late Medieval England (1350-1425)

Thursday 15 December, 4-5pm, Humanities A3

Pam Powell: The Mayor's Book – a Material and Codicological Analysis

Grace Owen: The Roles and Activities of Peasant Officials in the Manorial Courts of Glastonbury

All UoN postgraduate students whose research interests have a medieval theme are welcome to present or attend.

Please contact Ellie Cox ahxec2@exmail.nottingham.ac.uk for further information and to sign up.

The Dragon, Apocalypse ('The Trinity Apocalypse'), England ca. 1250