Do you remember ANTI-APARTHEID activism in Nottinghamshire?

Researchers at the University of Nottingham are studying the local history of the anti-Apartheid movement, from the 1960s to the early 1990s.

Have you got stories to share?

Were you (or family or friends) involved in protests, boycotts, raising awareness or fundraising?
Or any other form of action by Nottingham people in solidarity with the people of South Africa?

Then get in touch!
