

University of Nottingham
School of Modern Languages and Cultures
Centre for the Study of Post-Conflict Cultures

HAPPINESS
AND
POST-CONFLICT CULTURES

International
Colloquium
5-7 MAY 2006

HAPPINESS SOVIET STYLE

Friday 5 May	Venue: The Library, Florence Boot Hall
14:30	Coffee
14:45	Introduction
15:00	Evgeny Dobrenko (University of Nottingham) В стране языка, или «Посетите Советский Союз!» Visit the Soviet Union: "The Country of the Language"
15:45	Gian Piero Piretto (University of Milan) Вкусно и здорово: Советское счастье в одной книге Tasty and Healthy: Soviet Happiness in One (Cook) Book
16:30	Susan Reid (University of Sheffield) Happy Housewarming
17:15	Discussion
19:00	Apéritif and Colloquium Dinner at Willoughby Hall In Conversation
20.30	Constance Goh (University of Nottingham) Greg Philo (University of Glasgow) Country Matters? Denmarked Cartoons: The Terror of the Transcendental

Saturday 6 May	Venue: The Library of Florence Boot Hall
9:00	Coffee
9.30	Philip Bullock (School of Slavonic and East European Studies, University College London) Andrei Platonov's Happy Moscow : Tolstoi, Stalin and the Soviet Self
10:15	Lesley Milne (University of Nottingham) Mikhail Zoshchenko and the Rational Pursuit of Happiness
11:00	Katerina Clark (Yale University) Happiness and the New Architecture
11:45	Lunch
12:45	Catriona Kelly (University of Oxford) A Joyful Childhood: Licensed Happiness for Little Ones
13:30	Julian Graffy (School of Slavonic and East European Studies, University College London) "Now I've Got A Radio... But Still No Happiness" New Debates about Happiness in the Films of 1956
14:15	Birgit Beumers (University of Bristol) From Nightmare to Happiness? Pavel Chukhrai's View on the Post-War Period and the Thaw in Thief and Driver for Vera
15:00	Discussion

HAPPINESS AND POST-CONFLICT

Venue: The Machicado Suite, Willoughby Hall

15.45	Afternoon Tea In Conversation
16.30	Cristina Demaria (University of Bologna) David Fraser (University of Nottingham) Reconciliation and Forgiving: the Power of Happy Memory
17.30	Patrizia Violi (University of Bologna) Lorenza Maluccelli (University of Ferrara) Catherine Davies (University of Nottingham) Testimonies of Women
18.30	Apéritif: Pimm's in the Warden's Study
20.00	Colloquium Supper at Willoughby Hall

Sunday 7 May

Venue: The Machicado Suite, Willoughby Hall

In Conversation

- 09.00 Elena Pirazzoli (University of Bologna)
Michelle Pépin (Nottingham Trent University)
Nicholas Hewitt (University of Nottingham)
Ruins and Reconstructions of the Post-Conflict City
- 10.00 María José Contreras (University of Bologna)
Bernard McGuirk (University of Nottingham)
Cities under Attacks: Bombs and Poems
- 11.00 Coffee
- 11.30 Iwona Sagan (RECOURSE, Gdansk University)
Graça Almeida Rodrigues (CIDESC, New University of Lisbon)
Urban Social and Economic Development after Conflict
- 12.30 Luisa Brunori (University of Bologna)
Ivan Urlic (University of Split)
Colin Wright (University of Nottingham)
Micro-Credit as a Tool for Reconciliation in Post-Conflict Economies
- 13.30 Buffet Lunch

The Colloquium is organized under the auspices of International Centre on Economic Social and Cultural Rights, Lisbon
The Socrates Post-Conflict Cultures Agreement of The University of Bologna
and
The University of Nottingham in association with Department of Russian and Slavonic Studies
Department of Critical Theory & Cultural Studies of the School of Modern Languages and Cultures