

Nottingham Careers Advisers' and Teachers' Conference

Thursday 24 April 2025, 8:30am-3:30pm

Monica Partridge Building, University Park Campus

- 8:30am Arrival and refreshments
Registration will take place in the Monica Partridge Building Atrium
- 9:00am Welcome and Keynote
Topical Issues in HE Admissions delivered by Rachel Gillam, Director of Student Recruitment
- 9.55am Transition to breakout session one
- 10:00am Breakout session one, choice of:
- Understand English and Liberal Arts
Our English and Liberal Arts graduates progress into a wide variety of professions. These courses can be fantastic choices to keep students' career options open.
 - Study Medicine at University of Nottingham
Changes are being made to our Medicine course for 2026 entry. Find out what is changing to best support your Year 12 students as they start their applications.
- 10:50am Refreshments
- 11:05am Breakout session two, choice of:
This extended breakout session will be an integrated talk and tour for all groups to experience some of the facilities at the University of Nottingham.
- Explore Health Sciences
An interactive session exploring the options available within the school of Health Sciences.
 - Investigate Chemical and Electronic Engineering
Access Engineering spaces to understand how and where students study.
 - Discover Geography through 3D map projections
Increase your understanding of Nottingham through our Projection Augmented Relief Model.
- 12:30pm Lunch and networking
- 1.10pm Round Table discussion
Sharing best practice
- 1:35pm Transition to breakout session three
- 1:40pm Breakout session three, choice of:
- Courses available within Cultural Media and Visual Studies
This session will cover all aspects of the department from History of Art and Visual Culture to Film, Television and Screen Studies.
 - Learn about our Business School
Business related courses are always a popular choice for students. Discover what we offer at University of Nottingham and what students can expect if they study with us.
 - An insight into Biosciences and Chemistry
Understand course structure, teaching methods and the qualities our academics look for in prospective students.
- 2:30pm Transition to afternoon keynote
- 2:35pm Keynote address
Update from UCAS delivered by Ellie Rowley
- 3:20pm Evaluation
- 3:30pm Conference close