

Social Research in Uncertain Times

11th Enquire Conference

Provisional Programme 9 th March 2019 - Teaching and Learning Building (TLB)- University Park 09.00– 17.00
Registration TLB – Atrium (A/Ground floor) 09.00 – 09.30
Opening Remarks and Keynote Speech TLB – C14 09.30 – 10.45 09.30 – 09.45: Professor Ian Shaw, Head of School of Sociology and Social Policy, University of Nottingham – Opening Remarks 09.45 – 10.45: Professor John Holmwood, University of Nottingham - Neo-liberalism, populism and the problem of expertise; challenges for sociology
Session One – Identity and Belonging TLB – C10 10.45 – 11.45 10.45 – 11.05: Danielle Watson, University of Nottingham - Gender Queer: The Right to Gender Identity in the European Court of Human Rights 11.05 – 11.25: Jenni Hunt, University of Leicester - Sharing Stories 11.25 – 11.45: Liam Wrigley, University of Sheffield - NEET young people’s social networks: pathways in and out of poor work?	Session Two – Methodological Challenges and Opportunities TLB – C11 10.45 – 11.45 10.45 – 11.05: Simon Massey, Manchester Metropolitan University - Methodological Challenges and Opportunities: Children Respondents and Emoji Responses 11.05 – 11.25: Berrin Altin Soran, University of Nottingham - Methodological Challenges in an Ethnographic Research 11.25 – 11.45: Kieran Phelan, University of Nottingham - Loom with a View: Telling Stories and Ethnographically Following Harris Tweed
Break TLB – Atrium (A/Ground floor) 11.45 – 12.00

Session Three – Political Uncertainty and Conflict TLB – C10 12.00 – 13.00 12.00 – 12.20: Suzanne Couloigner, University of Nottingham - Re-negotiating migration in political uncertainty: the case of French skilled migrants facing Brexit 12.20 – 12.40: Esmeralda Valentine Bon, University of Nottingham - Uncertainty and Elite Political Communication during the EU Referendum Campaign 12.40 – 13.00: Gbenga Akinlolu Shadare, University of Sheffield - Understanding and managing ethical tensions arising from conducting research in fragile and conflict-affected contexts	Session Four – Activism TLB – C11 12.00 – 13.00 12.00 – 12.20: Gabriella Cioce, University of Nottingham - Migrant workers’ class-based collective action and the way their political engagement contributes to overcoming precarious working conditions 12.20 – 12.40: Joe Kearsey, University of Nottingham - Workers’ Research and Precarious Work: Affective Labour and Collective Resistance in the Hospitality Industry 12.40 – 13.00: Renelle McGlacken, University of Nottingham - The UK Animal Research Debate: Moving Beyond the Language of Extremism
Lunch TLB – Atrium (A/Ground floor) 13.00 – 13.45
Keynote Speech TLB – C14 13.45 – 14.45 13.45 – 14.45: Professor Cecile Wright, University of Nottingham - Sociology, public policy and research: The “Windrush Scandal”
Session Five – Precarious Work Environments TLB – C10 14.45 – 15.45 14.45 – 15.05: Duncan Fisher, Teesside University - Value, what value? Austerity and adult social care work for young adults in Teesside 15.05 – 15.25: Ruth Tarlo, University of Nottingham - “Sometimes I feel like you can tell them till you’re blue in the face, but they’re still not quite getting the picture”: experiences of people with mild learning	Session Six – Academic Environments TLB – C11 14.45 - 15.45 14.45 – 15.05: Dr Edward Wright, Nottingham Trent University - Certainty and uncertainty: some conceptual ambiguities, and thoughts on the future 15.05 – 15.25: Dr Karen Lumsden, Independent Researcher - Abuses of the Academy: An Autoethnographic Account of the Policing of Qualitative and Critical Social Research and Scholarship difficulties who are looking for paid work

15.25 – 15.45: James Pattison, University of Nottingham - 'There's just too many of them': (Un)deservingness in participants' understanding of economic and social change

15.25 – 15.45: Lili Schwoerer, London School of Economics and Political Sciences - Navigating feminist uncertainties in the marketized English University

Break

TLB – Atrium (A/Ground floor)

15.45 – 15.55

Closing Remarks and Keynote Speech

TLB – C14

15.55 – 17.00

15.55 – 16.00: Enquire Conference Team – Closing Remarks

16.00– 17.00: Dr Helen Kara, Independent Scholar - How Can A Healthy Cell Live In A Sick Body?