come. Welcome. Welco

I would like to welcome you to your graduation ceremony today – it is an honour for all of us who have the opportunity to share today’s celebration with you.

This is the culmination of a lot of hard work and you should be very proud of your achievements and the path that led you here today.

You will also be surrounded by people who have made a difference on your journey today. Some in big ways, like friends or family, your tutors, and friends from your time here. Some in smaller ways, but they all feature in the story of your accomplishments celebrated today.

Your graduation also marks a transition – from student to graduate and valued member of our alumni community, a global network of more than 340,000 of our former students.

I look forward to seeing everything you go on to achieve after today. This is the pinnacle of one great achievement, but you will go on to great things and celebrate many future achievements too.

Enjoy your celebrations, this will be a day you remember for the rest of your life, and I wish you all the very best for your next steps.

Professor Jane Norman
Interim President and Vice-Chancellor

Academic dress: A brief history

Academic dress has a rich history, evolving from its practical origins to becoming a symbol of achievement and distinction. In the past, hoods were used to cover the head and varied in lining materials based on the season.

Today, the colours and styles of hoods and gowns serve as a visual representation of different levels and subject areas of awards. The colours and styles vary depending on the institution. Since its establishment in 1948, Nottingham has used light blue as its degree colour.

Academic dress

Gowns

Gowns for first and masters degrees are black.

Gowns for doctors are claret, faced to a depth of 3" with light blue silk.

Gowns for higher doctors are scarlet, faced to a depth of 3" with light blue silk.

Hoods

Those receiving a certificate wear a hood in the Belfast shape.

Those receiving a diploma wear a hood in the Edinburgh shape.

Those receiving a degree at all levels wear a hood in the Cambridge shape.

All graduate hoods are bound at the edge with a ribbon of the colour appropriate to the nominal faculty.

For higher first and higher masters degrees, the entire hood – including the cape – is bound with ribbon.

Here are representative gowns for each level of study, showcasing their distinctive colours and styles.

Elizabeth Hall MBE

Psychology, 1990

Elizabeth Hall (née Clark) MBE graduated with BA in psychology in 1990. Her career began in the press office of Action Aid before joining PR company Freud Communications. Fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) agency marketing roles followed before becoming Marketing Director of The Carbon Neutral Company and teaching yoga at Holloway Prison.

In 2018, driven by the belief that no one should be held back from participating in society because they cannot afford to wash their hair, clothes, brush their teeth, use period products or change their baby's nappy as needed, Elizabeth set up The Hygiene Bank. With nearly 600 volunteers and 200 local projects across the UK, 1,539,182 kg of basic hygiene products were distributed in 2023 to over 1,000 community partners, including schools, food banks, women's refuges and homeless shelters.

Elizabeth Hall will receive their Your Nottingham Alumni Award on Tuesday 10 December.

ary Honorary
Graduates. Gra

The University of Nottingham, in common with other British universities, is empowered to give honorary degrees to people of distinction and those who have given great success to the university.

Carolyne Willow

Doctor of Laws

Carolyne Willow has dedicated her career to fighting for the rights of children and young people. After qualifying as a social worker in 1988, she worked in child protection and with children in care, and then moved into specialist children's rights roles. She has influenced a wide range of legislation and government policy over the years and has been particularly persistent in challenging abusive use of force in child prisons.

Carolyne has worked with many non-governmental organisations and human rights bodies, including at the Council of Europe and United Nations, and has written extensively on children's rights over the past 30 years.

She was called to the Bar in 2023 and looks forward to representing children and young people in this new role.

Carolyne Willow will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws on Thursday 12 December 2024.

Kevin Ellis Doctor of Letters

Kevin Ellis, CBE, is the former chair and senior partner of PwC, and one of the UK's most prominent business leaders. He graduated from the University of Nottingham with a degree in Industrial Economics in 1984, joining the graduate training programme of PwC the same year. Qualifying as a chartered accountant, he later moved to business restructuring, helping to turn around public and private sector organisations facing crisis or difficulty. He became a partner in 1996, joined the Executive Board in 2008, and was elected chair and senior partner in 2016 - a position he held for eight years.

Kevin is a vocal champion on the role of business to support employment, skills and economic growth. During his leadership, PwC was one of the first UK firms to introduce hybrid working and pilot Generative AI. Kevin was also honoured with the 'Outstanding Contribution to Social Mobility' award at the Social Mobility Awards.

Kevin Ellis will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters on Thursday 12 December 2024.

Teresa Jeffcoat
Civil Engineering, 2004

Teresa Jeffcoat (CEng MEng MICE) is a Senior General Manager who works for Mott MacDonald Bentley within the @one alliance in Anglian Water. Teresa has accountability for all water project delivery within the alliance, alongside accountability for circa 150 alliance and 150 MMB staff. She uses collaborative practices to bring innovative and effective solutions to her programmes of work.

An experienced chartered civil engineer with over 20 years of experience in the sector, she uses her values and belief in doing the right thing to ensure successful programme outcomes – for the customers, client, contractors and supply chain.

Dr Chidinma Raymond-Limejuice
Molecular Medical Microbiology,
2016; PhD Virology, 2022

Chidinma Raymond-Limejuice, a virologist at the UK Health Security Agency (UKHSA), drives innovations in public health surveillance through advanced research and technology. With an MSc and PhD from the University of Nottingham, her role at UKHSA focuses on protecting the UK from viral health threats, particularly during pandemics. Her expertise in assay development and validation has been crucial in analysing hepatitis transmission within healthcare settings. Chidinma's team leads hepatitis investigations nationwide, addressing risk factors with enhanced infection control, routine screening, and vaccination protocols. At the University of Nottingham, Chidinma earned multiple prestigious awards, including the Developing Solutions Scholarship, Erasmus Fellowship, Schlumberger Faculty for the Future Fellowship, and top placements in national and global 3MT competitions. Outside her professional life, Chidinma is married, has a son, and founded the Zoe Children Foundation in Nigeria, supporting children's welfare.

Gemma Poole Midwifery, 2020

As a registered midwife and award-winning college lecturer for vulnerable populations, Gemma extends her impact through ventures like The Essential Baby Company Ltd and The Essential Baby Co in the Community CIC, focusing on promoting equity and supporting underrepresented communities. Building on her success in engaging underrepresented, she crafted the award-winning haPPIE® initiative, effectively redistributing power balances between patients and healthcare professionals to revolutionise how health education is delivered.

Beyond her advocacy, Gemma serves as an NHS Core20 Ambassador, NHS Maternity User Researcher, and Clinical Entrepreneur Ambassador. Notably, she made history as the first midwife to host the NHS Innovation Big Pitch event, showcasing her dedication to innovation, inclusivity, and social justice in healthcare. Passionate about collaboration, Gemma partners with various entities to enhance user experiences, eliminate design biases, and address broader social justice issues.

Notable speakers

Dr Stephen Olufunso Ojo, MBBS, DRH, MMedSci, MAcadMed, FHEA, CMALT Medical Education, 2023

Dr Ojo is an experienced Emergency Medicine Specialist and Honorary Assistant Professor at the University of Nottingham, recognised for his contributions to education.

With a strong clinical background, he leads technology-driven education initiatives integrating AI, virtual and augmented reality, and telemedicine to shape healthcare training.

An international speaker and TEDx presenter, Dr Ojo champions experiential learning, specialising in simulation-based education and mentorship. His advocacy and research in digital healthcare education are setting new standards for accessibility and training, positioning him as a transformative leader in healthcare education worldwide.

Gethrude Charles

MBA, 2024

Gethrude Charles is a business leader and sustainability advocate with over six years of experience in business development and eco-tourism. As the founder of Osená Travels, she expanded the company's reach across four continents. At the University of Nottingham, Gethrude led a team in the Climate Resilience Challenge, crafting sustainable solutions for a partner organisation, and she also served as a member of the EDI Committee. Currently, she mentors the university's Sustainability and Societal Impact Fellows and recently competed in Evolve 2024, applying her expertise in sustainable strategy to inspire responsible, impactful entrepreneurship.

Notable speakers

Emma Mallett Animal Science, 2023

Named in Exeter's 30 under 30 and 2024 winner of the Diversity Champion category of the Security Serious Unsung Heroes Awards, Emma is currently Regional Sales manager for a leading IT company.

Emma is co-founder of ConneXe, a business revolutionising career opportunities for talent using events, employer branding consultancy and creative marketing to bring opportunities to the South West; and Founder of The Concrete Club, a podcast inspired by her experience of rebuilding her life following a brain injury in 2018, when she was hit by a concrete mixer in her car.

Emma works to give a voice to women in tech and cyber industries, leading the development of WiTCH (Women in Tech and Cyber Hub) in Exeter. She is also a board member of the Exeter initiative for Science and Technology and assisted the creation of the new board for NextGen in the Exeter Chamber of Commerce. Emma studied Animal Science and was a Witty Scholar, funded by former Chancellor of the University of Nottingham, Sir Andrew Witty and his family.

Peter Boyes

Mathematics, 2017; Human Computer Interaction, 2018; PhD Human Computer Interaction, 2022

Peter completed three degrees at the University of Nottingham from 2014 to 2022. After finishing his Mathematics undergraduate degree, he spent five years working towards a master's and then a PhD in Human Computer Interaction. Alongside his studies, Peter engaged significantly with the Boat Club. Receiving recognition for his services to sport and the student experience with multiple awards over his five-year tenure as President of the club, he now coaches part-time for the university. Working for the National Governing Body after his graduation, Peter has provided insight support to projects bringing meaningful change to rowing at a national scale.
