1.15pm Subject-specific activities

Your afternoon programme is structured so you can select the talks relevant to your personal subject choices. This will usually mean attending one or two subject talks where you can find out more about how each course is structured as well as having the opportunity to experience a student seminar. There will also be a session where you can find out more about the option to study abroad, and where you'll have the opportunity to speak to some of our students and ask them what it's like to study at Nottingham. If you are attending for a joint honours course, you will also receive information about the English, History, Politics or Latin American studies part of your degree.

We will have a refreshment break between sessions so you can grab a hot drink, chat informally to academic staff and current students, and ask any questions you may have.

Our subject ambassadors will escort you between venues. School activities will finish at 3.30pm.
